The production will be in two sections. The first will utilize jazz and abstract themes and the second will consist of a more ethnic, historical theme, according to Linda Hatch, concert director.

TICKETS For the performances are available at the ticket office, Harris Fine Arts Center. Performances will begin nightly at 8:15 p.m. with a 2:15 p.m. matinee Saturday.

Spring Show To Give Japan's Dance, Drama

Oriental dances and drama will be presented at BYU Friday and Saturday at the Japanese Club Spring Show, under the sponsorship of the ASBYU Productions Guild.

THE TRADITIONALS, performed by Japanese students in native costume, will be held in the Harris Fine Arts Center Concert Hall at 8:15 p.m.

THE JAPANESE dramas are planned. These include a pageant telling the tragic love story of a water princess, and a drama entitled "47 Ronin" that tells of Samurai warriors roaming about the country to avenge their leader's death.

One of the featured performers for the dramatic stories will be Michiko Whipple, star of Teahouse of the August Moon.

ALL COSTUMES and decorations have been made by the Japanese Club, comprising 120 members, most of Japanese descent.
